

JOHN MCGLASHAN
COLLEGE

Director of Boarding

*Leadership in a unique College
Proud history and special character
Dunedin location*

John McGlashan College is a Decile 10, Year 7-13 integrated secondary school for boarders and day boys in Dunedin. Sited in a pristine natural environment, it is blessed with expansive grounds, state-of-the-art buildings and facilities, and modern comfortable boarding houses that provide a home for a quarter of the boys. Established in 1918, the College combines sound traditions, values and outstanding achievement with a modern approach to education and a deep understanding of what parents and their sons expect from a school in today's society.

As Director of Boarding, you will be a key member of the leadership team, playing a wider role in student activities, engaging in the full life of the College and contributing to the ongoing success of the school.

To be successful in this role you will need:

- A passion for boys' education and empathy for teenage boys.
- Exceptional interpersonal, communication and relationship skills.
- A strong moral compass.
- An innovative and forward thinking approach.
- Experience in leadership and strengths in fostering collegial teams.
- Strong management skills in planning and organisation.
- A commitment to your own and others professional development.
- A focus on self-reflection and continuous improvement.
- An enthusiasm for leading a dynamic, lively, inclusive and safe boarding hostel.
- An empathy for the College's Special Character.

This is a unique leadership opportunity to join an exceptional secondary school. The Director of Boarding lives on-site.
